In the [MONTH/YEAR] semester, __________________________________________ (“Student”) participated in __[COURSE NAME]___ (the “Course”) offered by the University of Utah (“University”), and in connection with the course, created text, pictures, or other creative works (the “Works”). Student wishes to provide access to the Works to the University and hereby grants University, its legal representatives and assigns, those for whom the University is acting, and those acting with its authority and permission, a perpetual, non-revocable, royalty-free, worldwide license to reproduce, publicly display, make derivative works of, perform, use, and transmit the Works in any and all media now known or hereafter developed. Student waives any right Student may have to inspect or approve any alterations or derivative works the University may create of the Works.

I agree that the University may choose to exercise the rights granted herein or not exercise any such rights, in the University’s sole discretion. I further understand that should the University exercise its rights hereunder, the University may discontinue use of any of the Works at any time.

Student affirms that the Works is/are solely Student’s original work. By signing this document, Student does not relinquish any copyright ownership Student may have in the Works. Student warrants that Student is over eighteen and is authorized to enter into this agreement. This release shall be binding upon Student and Student’s legal representatives and assigns.

Student Name (please print): _____________________________

Signature: _____________________________________________

Date: ________________________________________________

Please mark one of the following:

_____ Please add my name as a collaborator of printed and online material

_____ I wish to remain anonymous